Updates

GENERAL FAQ'S

Where do we return our materials that we have from last year?

Collection Day is Monday, August 17th. Please bring all materials that you have checked out from Southeast Tech to collection day. Do NOT bring your Chromebooks back, keep those. Examples of items to bring: textbooks, library books, uniforms, etc. Visit secta.us for more information.

When will students learn how to use Canvas?

Students will be trained on Canvas on August 24th, the first day of school continuing through Wednesday. A detailed schedule of student on-boarding will come out soon. For some information now, visit secta.us/parents.

When will we receive student schedules?

Starting on August 14th, students will have access to schedules. Counselors will not change courses for preference of teacher or period. Schedules will only be altered if the student has already completed a course that shows in the current schedule. Please reach out to your student's assigned counselor with questions: secta.us/faculty.

I have items that belong to the school. What do I do?

All items need to be returned on Monday, August 17th! For more information, visit secta.us.

How do I get my items back from my lockers?

Locker items will be distributed after school starts at a school-wide distribution day. Details will come out soon.

What if I need specific equipment or software for my program?

We will host a school-wide distribution day after the school year begins. Students will be notified about when and where they will need to go. This info will be communicated by teachers and available on our website and social media pages.

What is happening with sports and other extracurricular activities?

Clubs and other extracurricular activities, that can be completed virtually, will be offered for student involvement. For sports information, get the latest from the NIAA at NIAA.com.

Attention Students!

We want to hear from YOU! Help us welcome back our Tech Family by sending a quick photo for a chance to be in our featured welcome back video!!

Send in a pic of:

- You holding a welcome back sign!
- Be sure to have a smile!
- Even include a positive message for your peers!

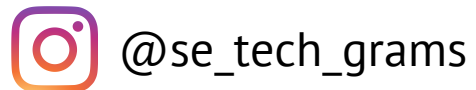

Email your photo to Mrs. Bechtler at bechtm@nv.ccsd.net ASAP!

Welcome to

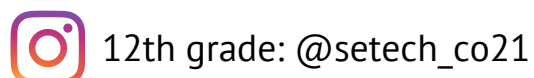

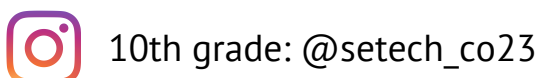

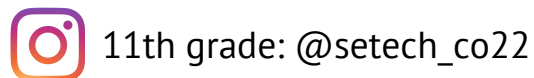

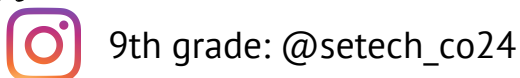

The Year of Music

Southeast Tech Student Council is excited to launch "The Year of Music," a theme that can bring all students together, although we are apart. We plan to stay connected, both as graduating classes and as a whole school, through music by creating the most epic Spotify Playlists!
